NEW ART UP-CLOSE

An affordable series of small-scale books on living artists

The New Art Up-Close series offers a fresh take on the traditional artist's monograph. These pocket-sized books present the work of international, living artists in a highly accessible and affordable format, serving as informative introductions to the artists' work.

Priced at £4.99, each book includes 32 full-colour pages of artworks spanning the artist's career, an exclusive interview with the artist, and background notes on every illustrated work.

The books feature unusual, folded-tab covers and have won acclaim as design objects in their own right.

"A brilliantly conceived series."

—ArtNewsLetter

"A cute and affordable series of art books, produced with love and care."

—The Independent

"An innovative and eloquent primer on artists whose work you may wish to explore further ... ideal for artists or students seeking inspiration."

—The Guardian

"It is certainly a series to look out for."

—Art Monthly

Titles available in the series

JAKE & DINOS CHAPMAN

New Art Up-Close #3

Jake and Dinos Chapman gained notoriety with their provocative and intelligent artworks as part of the 1990s 'Brit Art' generation. The Royal Academy's millennium exhibition, 'Apocalypse', was conceived around their epic sculpture, Hell, and in 2003 their reworked Goya etchings saw them nominated for the Turner Prize. They are now considered among the most important artists working today.

GAVIN TURK

New Art Up-Close #2

An overview of the celebrated British sculptor, Gavin Turk, who rose to prominence in the early 1990s during the so-called 'young British artists' phenomenon, when his thoughtful, visually striking work quickly brought him popular acclaim. Turk was a key artist in the Royal Academy's 1997 'Sensation' exhibition of works from the Saatchi collection, and he continues to exhibit internationally.
